

LONE STAR PROJECT

Fighting Back... with Facts

(202) 547-7610 - Fax (202) 547-8258

August 7, 2006

Contact: Matt Angle

On the web at www.LoneStarProject.net

Supreme Court Denies Texas Republican's Request for Stay in Tom DeLay Ballot Challenge

Just a short while ago, Justice Antonin Scalia denied the Texas Republican's request for a stay in Tom DeLay's ballot challenge - less than one day after it had been filed.

While Texas Republicans have a few legal options left, their practical options are essentially exhausted.

Because Rick Perry refused to call a special election and because Tom DeLay and the Republican Party have insisted on pursuing a flawed scheme to overturn the GOP primary, voters in the 22nd District of Texas have gone three months without a voice in Congress.

Tom DeLay remains the Republican nominee for Congress in the 22nd District of Texas. He may withdraw from the ballot if he wishes, but he cannot be replaced by another candidate. After attempting to "cut and run" instead of facing voters in a fair election, Tom DeLay must now decide to "run or cut".

You can read the Application for Stay Here

The Lone Star Project is an activity of the Lone Star Fund. Contributions or gifts to the Lone Star Fund are not tax deductible. All contributions are subject to the prohibitions and limitations of the Federal Election Campaign Act. Federal Law requires us to use best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 in a calendar year.

Paid for by The Lone Star Fund, 6 E St, SE, Washington, DC 20003.
Not authorized by any candidate or candidate's committee.

Lone Star Fund
6 E Street, SE
Washington, DC 20003

To unsubscribe from this mailing list, click here

POWERED BY NGP SOFTWARE, INC.

